

I am opposed to further media consolidation as I believe it threatens freedom of expression and of the press in the USA, both of which are fundamental to our democracy. The FCC needs to protect the interests of the American public, not the private interests of a few corporations. Please vote on 2 June to retain the current ownership rules.